DEBT RESTRUCTURING PROCESS – PUBLICATION OF PROSPECTUS

Further to the previous announcement made on the 16 May 2014 regarding Plaza’s debt restructuring process, Plaza has made available on its website a prospectus that has been published in Israel, detailing the proposed amendments to the terms of the Israeli Series A and Series B bonds as well as other provisions applicable to the holders of such Series A and Series B bonds.

The prospectus also contains an amended Dutch restructuring plan, attached as an appendix to the prospectus.

As previously announced, Plaza will file today the amended restructuring plan with the Dutch Court.

The terms of the restructuring as proposed in the prospectus will be implemented, subject to the amended restructuring plan being adopted by the requisite majority of creditors and subsequently confirmed by the Dutch Court.

A full copy of the prospectus and a separate copy of the amended restructuring plan as filed with the Dutch court are available on Plaza’s website at: http://www.plazacenters.com/index.php?p=debt_restructuring
